OF THE VOICE OVER THE TFT

Welcome everyone to Rugby Borough FC for today's FAWNL game. I would also like to welcome all the Chatham staff, players and fans.

Our last home fixture saw us take our chances well against Solihull Moors. We have been threatening that kind of performance and score for a while and it was good to see us dominate as well as the type of goals we scored. Congratulations also to Sarah Essam on her hattrick and getting the FA Cup player of the round vote. Sarah is unfortunately missing today, as she is away with Egypt on International duty.

Today's opponents Chatham have had a good upturn in results recently, since new Manager Keith Boanas has come in. Keith is a top manager and with the new additions and structure, we are going to be playing a very dangerous Chatham side who I'm sure won't perform like their league position today.

I'm pleased to welcome Jess Camwell to the squad from Derby County. Jess is an exciting young player who already has good experience at this level and will add to our attacking threat well.

Next week also sees us home in FA Cup action against Sheffield United. It would be great to see a good crowd of support for that game. Enjoy today's game.

THE OPPORTION

Club History

In 1995, the Gillingham F.C owner co-opted a local women's football team called Borstal '88.

Then in June 2014, the team was brought back under the banner of the men's football club, Gillingham F.C after a period as an independent outfit. Following this takeover, the club became known as Gillingham Ladies, In June 2020, Gillingham FC announced that, as a result of restructuring necessitated by the Covid-19 pandemic, they would no longer operate Gillingham Ladies with immediate effect. The club, sanctioned the FA Women's National League, simultaneously announced a rebrand as Gillingham Women and continued competing as an independent entity with Josh Oatham as chairman and first team manager.

During the summer of 2023, the club become known as Chatham Town Women FC to reflect their new permanent home and remain as members of the Women's FA National League (Tier 3) under Club Chairman, Kevin Hake, and are aiming for to progress through the league table with a firm base in the heart of the Medway Town's and a new home at Chatham Town Football Club. The hugely experienced Keith Boanas was appointed as the new Manager in October 2023 with the team and playing style developing under his stewardship.

FOR THE VOICE

Good afternoon, to what I'm sure is a very cold afternoon here in Rugby! Why isn't football a summer sport...debate? Speaking of football as a whole though, the news has finally broken!

Women's Super League and Women's Championship clubs have agreed to form a club-owned organisation that will run women's professional football in England from the 2024-25 season.

It will take control of the WSL and Championship from the Football Association, with each club in the two top tiers acting as shareholders.

Former Nike director Nikki Doucet will be the organisation's chief executive. The FA has run the WSL since it was launched in 2010.

A takeover of the WSL has been planned for some time after the FA revealed in 2018 that it had no intention to run the professional leagues in the long-term and welcomed proposals - including from the Premier League - before settling on the creation of an independent body.

The FA formed a working group of 10 chief executives from clubs in the top two tiers of English women's football, chaired by Arsenal chief executive Vinai Venkatesham. It is hoped the new structure will capitalise on the rapid rise of women's football in recent years, accelerated by the England's success at Euro 2022.

Baroness Sue Campbell, Director of Women's Football for the FA, said: "The women's professional game is in the strongest place that it has ever been thanks to the hard work of everybody involved in its development so far, but we firmly believe that the NewCo will take it to another level entirely.

"Each of our 24 clubs and the league itself wants the WSL and Championship to be setting the standards for women's football around the world, and this venture into a new governing body is the next step in us achieving that ambition."

So, as I always say, now is the time to get involved, whether by attending games, or joining us commercially, this game of ours is only headed one way.

In the meantime, enjoy the game and shout the girls on to another victory!
