BIOGRAPHY:

Plymouth Argyle Women Football Club are a women's association football club located in the city of Plymouth in the county of Devon in the South-West of England.

Plymouth Argyle Women are based at Devon FA Coach Road and participate in the FA Women's National League Southern Premier Division. The club was formed in 1975 as a result of a 5-a-side league at the Mayflower Leisure Centre. Two teams merged in order to enter an 11-a-side football tournament in Newquay, Cornwall with the team creating the name of 'Plymouth Pilgrims'. Following the success of the tournament, Plymouth Pilgrims played in numerous competitions throughout the 1970s and 1980s with the most notable achievement being reaching the quarter-finals of the Women's FA Cup in both 1976 and 1977.

The club name changed to 'Saltash Pilgrims' in the late 1990s and the early part of the year 2000 to reflect their home ground at the time – Saltash United's Kimberly Stadium in Cornwall. It was not until the 2001–02 season that the club, then competing in the SW Combination League, were invited to compete under the umbrella of Plymouth Argyle F.C., and Plymouth Argyle Ladies were formed.

In recent years, the club has progressed both on and off the pitch, which is evident in an improved financial position, an increased media profile which reflects the growing interest in women's football in the UK, and improved results on the pitch. In July 2020 the club was brought under the umbrella of the Plymouth Argyle football in the Community Trust, providing an organic ladder for players progressing through the trust's girls advanced development centre as well as other commercial and community benefits.

In June 2021 the club officially rebranded from Plymouth Argyle Ladies to Plymouth Argyle Women while rapidly increasing its links and relationship with the parent club. The club was awarded the Tier 3 Respect Award for season 2021-22, and the Tier 3 Club of The Year Award for season 2022-23.

THE VOICE OF

Welcome everyone to Rugby Borough FC for today's FAWNL game. I would also like to welcome all the Plymouth Argyle Staff and players.

Another home game again gives us the chance to build on our good league start against Plymouth today. Last week we made a strong start at a 1-0 up we felt in control going into half time. An eventful next five minutes unfortunately saw Angelina Nixon sent off for handball and Hashtag scoring a penalty and then a 2nd to take the lead going into the half. With 10 players we worked hard but couldn't get back into the game.

Today now gives us the opportunity to bounce back and get on track. Plymouth bring a threat with the ability to score goals themselves so today should be an entertaining game and I'm looking forward to seeing our group continue to develop our identity and style of play.

Congratulations to our forward Sarah Essam who scored on international duty for Egypt this week.

A big thank you to all our supporters. I hope everyone enjoys today's fixture.

THE VOICE OF

It's hard to believe another week has passed by and that Autumn is well and truly up and running! Last week saw our winning start to the season ended, in slightly controversial circumstances. Having been in complete control of the game, we conceded a penalty and were given a red card and in the blink of an eye went behind. It doesn't help with the losing the points (a topic for debate) but I am delighted to say we were able to appeal and successfully get overturned the red card given to Angelina.

We move on and we already know that this young group are very resilient and will be looking to bounce back and start another winning run.

I have also been delighted this week with the number of new player sponsors coming on board or enquiries made. We hope to have them all filled very soon so please do get in touch if you would like to be a part of this special team.

It's with great sadness that I end these notes with a mark of respect for the passing of Sheffield United footballer Maddy Cusack. Our thoughts are with Maddy's family and friends and all at the football club at this difficult time. There will be a one-minute silence held prior to today's kick-off in remembrance of Maddy.
